DRAFT MINUTES

INDEPENDENT CITIZENS COMMISSION

December 30, 2014

The Independent Citizens Commission met Tuesday December 30, 2014, at 8:30 a.m., in Room 272, State Capitol, Little Rock, Arkansas.

Commission members present: Chair-Mr. Larry Ross, Vice Chair-Mr. Chuck Banks, Mr. Mitch Berry, Ms. Barbara Graves, Mr. Stuart Hill, Ms. Brenda James, and Mr. Stephen Tipton.

Chair Ross, called the meeting to order and acknowledged Commission members, Mr. Brandon Robinson, Office of the Attorney General, and Ms. Melanie Jenkins, Commission Staff. Chairman Ross also stated in his opening remarks that with a vision to see, courage to act, and faith to trust, the Independent Citizens Commission will adhere the FOIA, and there will be an open, honest, transparent and inclusive assessment process with appropriate input from the public.

Consideration of Minutes from the December 30, 2014, Commission Meeting
A motion was made by Commissioner Tipton and seconded by Commissioner Berry to approve the minutes. The motion carried without objection.

Review of Arkansas' Economy (Handouts 1-2)
Dr. John Shelnutt, Research Administrator, Economic Analysis and Tax Research, Department of Finance and Administration (DFA), presented an overview of current economic conditions, a biennial forecast and the economic recovery progress for the State of Arkansas. Commissioner Berry requested additional information on Arkansas' covered employment annual wage average of $38,941.
Dr. Shelnutt advised this is mandated reporting by employers so this a good overall good representation of the employment wage average for the state and includes all part time and full time jobs. Commissioner Banks asked if the state is in sufficient financial shape to fund changes, hypothetically upward changes, and whether or not the money is there and will the money be there in the future. Dr. Shelnutt stated that Brandon Sharp, DFA Office of Budget, could address these types of questions.

Historical Overview of Compensation for Executive, Legislative, and Judicial Branches:
Mr. Ernie Dumas presented historical information from 1874 to the present on salaries and other compensations, whether ethical or not, that legislators and elected officials received. Often officials are compensated for their low salaries in other ways such as per diem and other expense reimbursements. Commission Berry asked for additional information regarding Amendment 70 and a brief history of judicial salaries. Mr. Dumas stated that in 1974, judicial salaries where handed over to the legislature. Mr. Dumas also added that this commission is probably the most powerful commission in the history of the state because the Amendment specifies the commission decides whether or not go to the legislature for appropriation. Mr. Dumas' understanding from reading the Amendment is that the decision by this commission will come directly from general revenue. Vice Chairman Banks asked for clarity that the money used for salaries will not affect education or other such programs and that the money comes from a special fund and there is no competition. Mr. Dumas clarified that there is always competition but the money the commission designates comes from general revenue and comes out of treasury.

Commission Discussion (Handout 3)

Chairman Ross presented a handout of items to consider in response to Commissioner Graves' inquiries regarding additional information on the amount of time spent on the job, is it still part time or is it full time, has the job grown over the years, and what other compensations are given as well as Health Insurance. Commissioner Berry added that they would also need to know from all of the positions under review what other benefits these offices receive in order to paint a truer picture. Chairman Ross suggested that requesting an appropriate person from each benefit area to quantify the benefits and the total compensation package. Commissioner Graves asked that the information be presented by base salary, pension, and health benefits. At the request of Commissioner Banks, all available handouts will be sent to commissioners for review prior to the meeting. Chairman Ross commented on his handout that it was a starting point for the information needed and that this was going to take time to make these decisions. It was suggested that an invitation be extended to the all office holders whose salaries are under review.

Commissioner Hill requested information on mileage and per diem rates from states similar to Arkansas. Vice Chairman Banks suggested that members also conduct research on their own and share to be presented to the commission. Chairman Ross asked Brandon Robinson if the commission was unable to make a decision by the deadline, could the pay be made retroactive. Mr. Robinson will research this, as it is not addressed in the law. The commission asked that the next meeting attendees include the Senate Pro Tempore and Speaker of the House to give a presentation on their reimbursements, etc., Judicial Council, and Brandon Sharp to give a presentation on the state of Arkansas along with the executive branch information.

Commissioner Tipton inquired about the process of getting public. Chairman Ross stated the commission will receive public input somehow but, at this time, the commission is not ready yet. This could be an agenda item for the January 14, 2015, meeting.

Chairman Ross stated that Ms. Jenkins is looking into other locations for upcoming meetings.

Upcoming meeting dates are as follows:

Wednesday, January 7, 2015 - Location TBD
Wednesday, January 14, 2015 - Location TBD

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 10:45 a.m.

DRAFT

Prepared by the Arkansas District Judges Council

General information on District Courts

- Every county has a district judge.
- In order to become a district judge, a person must have been a practicing attorney in Arkansas for a minimum of four years and he/she must be a qualified elector within the area from which he/she is chosen.
- While it is a relatively simple task to gather data from other states about circuit judges, salaries, etc. for purposes of comparison, the same is not true for district courts. All states have courts of limited jurisdiction (district courts in Arkansas) and those jurisdictions vary from state to state.
- Amendment 80 to the Arkansas Constitution was approved by voters in 2000. The amendment rewrote the Judicial Article to the Constitution, which included creating a true third tier of the judiciary. The amendment was designed by a bipartisan group and was intended to modernize the judicial branch and included changing the name of municipal courts to district courts. The amendment called for non-partisan election of all judges. The state district courts were established to improve access to justice for the citizens of the State. The legislature was responsible for implementation of the amendment and began in 2007 by creating the District Court Resources Assessment Board to study district courts and move toward state funded full time district court judges. That Board continues to perform its task. There are currently 38 full time state district judges, with another 17 due to become full time state judges by 2021.

Salary and Benefits

State District Judges are paid from the Constitutional Officers Fund. (That fund also receives money from the Administration of Justice Fund and local government entities.) In addition to their salary, health insurance, retirement contribution and matching, state district judges can ask for reimbursement for mileage incurred when traveling from one of their courts to another one of their courts. That mileage reimbursement is computed at the current state rate. Local district judges can be eligible for reimbursement for mileage and expenses if they are requested to do so by the Supreme Court. The judges are eligible for reimbursement for mileage and expenses at same rate as other state employees.

Local District Judges are paid by their local cities and/or counties. If there are benefits, those are decided at the local level.

All district judges are members of the Arkansas Public Employees Retirement System (APERS).

Outside of partial reimbursement from state funds and grants to attend continuing education programs, there is no other reimbursement for district judges.

Unresolved Issues Regarding District Judges' Salaries

Amendment 94 outlines the duties of the Commission in regards to which salaries the Commission should study. The unresolved issue is in the language concerning which salaries to be considered. The amendment merely states "district judge." The issue is whether or not that language refers to ALL district judges or to those paid by the state. Currently, only 38 of the 110 district judges are considered state employees.

Arkansas District Courts

The Arkansas Constitution, Amendment 80, §7, establishes District Court as the trial courts of limited jurisdiction as to amount and subject matter. The courts are provided criminal jurisdiction over misdemeanor cases and such civil jurisdiction as is established by the Arkansas Supreme Court.

In 2011, the General Assembly established two types of district courts – state and local. State district courts are served by full-time judges: (1) whose salaries are paid by the state; (2) who are not engaged in the private practice of law; and (3) who are available for work in circuit court under rules adopted by the Supreme Court. Ark. Code Ann. §16-17-1102.

The salaries of the state district court judges are uniform and are paid with state funds appropriated by the General Assembly from the Constitutional Officers Fund. Ark. Code Ann. §16-17-1104.

State district courts have been given greater jurisdiction than that provided for local district courts. Under Supreme Court Administrative Order Number 18, a state district court judge may hear certain cases pending in the circuit court. In addition, state district courts have jurisdiction in matters of contract where the amount in controversy does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000); in actions for the recovery of personal property where the value of the property does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000); and in matters of damage to personal property where the amount in controversy does not exceed the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000

Local district courts may be either full-time or part-time and are served by judges whose salaries are set and paid by the cities and/or counties which the courts serve. Ark. Code Ann. §16-17-1107. Administrative Order Number 18 gives local district courts the same types of civil jurisdiction as is provided to state district courts but limits the amount in controversy to five-thousand dollars ($5,000).

There are currently 38 state district judges who serve 26 courts (111 locations) in 28 counties. The 58 local district courts (127 locations) in the remaining 47 counties are served by 72 local district judges.

ID	Definition	Type
Green	Green Legislatures require the most time of legislators, usually 80 percent or more of a full-time job. They have large staffs. In most Green states, legislators are paid enough to make a living without requiring outside income. These legislatures are more similar to Congress than are the other state legislatures. Most of the nation's largest population states fall in this category. Because there are marked differences within the category, we have subdivided the Green states. Those in Green generally spend more time on the job because their sessions are longer and their districts larger than those in Green Lite. As a result, they tend to have more staff and are compensated at a higher rate. Within subcategories, states are listed alphabetically.	Full-Time (Well Paid Lg. Staff)
Green Lite		Full-Time Lite
Gray	Legislatures in the Gray category are hybrids. Legislatures in these states typically say that they spend more than two-thirds of a full time job being legislators. Although their income from legislative work is greater than that in the Gold states, it's usually not enough to allow them to make a living without having other sources of income. Legislatures in the Gray category have intermediate sized staff. States in the middle of the population range tend to have Gray legislatures.	Hybrid
Gold Lite	In the Gold states, on average lawmakers spend the equivalent of half of a full-time job doing legislative work. The compensation they receive for this work is quite low and requires them to have other sources of income in order to make a living. The Gold states have relatively small staffs. They are often called traditional or citizen legislatures and they are most often found in the smallest population, more rural states. Again, NCSL has divided these states into two groups. The legislatures in Gold are the most traditional or citizen legislatures. The legislatures in Gold Lite are slightly less traditional. States are listed alphabetically within subcategories.	Part-Time Lite
Gold		Part-Time Low Pay (Sm. Staff)
